¹ A man is blessed when he does not walk in the company of the ungodly.
He does not stand in the way of sinners.
He does not sit in the chair of troublemakers.

² Instead, his desire is with the law of the lord.
He will study his law both day and night.

³ He will be like the tree planted beside the running water.
It will bear its fruit in the harvest.
Its leaf does not fall off.
Everything that it can produce will prosper.

⁴ This is not how it will be with the ungodly. Not at all.
Nor is it so for the husks. The wind will blow them away from the earth.

⁵ This is why the wicked will not survive the judgment,
and sinners cannot associate with the righteous:

⁶ Because God knows the way of the righteous.
But he will destroy the ways of the ungodly.
